POLICY

This policy establishes the standards of personal dress for non-uniform office personnel throughout the year.

Employees' appearance and behavior project an image to our customers, including the general public, about state employees and ADOA. Each ADOA employee is expected to practice good grooming habits and to dress in a manner that is appropriate to the position and the assigned work activities. Since what may be considered as appropriate can vary from unit to unit, or position to position, you are encouraged to ask your supervisor for guidance if you are unsure.

Supervisors at all levels are responsible for ensuring day-to-day compliance with this guideline. Supervisors shall consider compliance with dress standards when evaluating employee job performance.

Individual supervisors shall make the final decision as to appropriate attire and may direct a staff member to leave the work site at their own expense and on their own time to change into more appropriate clothing.
